

Application dates of the safety measures under the General Vehicle Safety Regulation (EU) 2019/2144

1 st phase of implementation (A/B)		2 nd phase of implementation (C)		3 rd phase of implementation (D)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Intelligent speed assistance (ISA) ✓ Emergency lane keeping (cars and vans) ✓ Advanced emergency braking for stationary/moving vehicles (cars and vans) ✓ Event data recorder (cars and vans) ✓ Driver drowsiness and attention warning* ✓ Alcohol interlock installation facilitation* ✓ Emergency stop signal* ✓ Reversing detection* ✓ Blind spot information system (trucks and buses) ✓ Pedestrians and cyclists collision warning (trucks and buses) ✓ Tyre pressure monitoring system (vans, trucks and buses) ✓ Cybersecurity & software update 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Advanced emergency braking for pedestrians and cyclists (cars and vans) ✓ Advanced driver distraction warning ✓ Enlarged head impact zone (cars and vans) ✓ Tyres in worn condition ✓ Event data recorder (for automated vehicles) ✓ Driver availability monitoring (for automated vehicles) ✓ Platooning (for automated trucks) 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Direct vision requirements (trucks and buses) ✓ Event data recorder (trucks and buses)* Pedestrian protection for small series: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ mid-2028 (new types) ➤ mid-2034 (new vehicles)
new types	new vehicles/parts	new types	new vehicles/tyres	new types	new vehicles
6 July 2022	7 July 2024	7 July 2024	7 July 2026	7 Jan 2026	7 Jan 2029
Supplementary legislation to be adopted by: 6 April 2021		7 April 2023		7 September 2024
* Detailed technical requirements to be set out in Delegated Acts.

Regulation (EU) 2019/2144 enters into force on 5 January 2020.