

Invitation to the 24th Session of the GRVA Informal Working Group on Functional Requirements for Automated Vehicles (FRAV)

The 24th session of the FRAV informal group is scheduled for 8 February 2022 between 12:45 and 15:15 CET via web conference. Further details will be posted as available on the FRAV wiki page for the session. Participants can connect to this session via this link.

Previous Session

During the last session, FRAV conducted a line-by-line review of Document 5. The discussion resulted in FRAV-23-05/Rev.2 (duly submitted to GRVA as GRVA-12-23). The discussion highlighted open issues which FRAV reported in its status report to GRVA (GRVA-12-22, specifically slide 6).

The FRAV leadership has been involved in discussions with the VMAD leadership and separately with the VMAD and EDR/DSSAD leaderships. These discussions are addressing areas of mutual interest, complementarity, and interdependence towards facilitating compatible outcomes from the work of the informal groups. WP.29/AC.2 also tasked FRAV to address possible light-signaling needs in coordination with GRE.

The next major milestone for FRAV will be our submission(s) to the 13th GRVA session scheduled for 23-27 May.

Session Objectives

Based on the above, the main objective for the 24th session is to ensure a common understanding on the tasks, goals, and expectations for the further elaboration of Document 5. The session will cover:

- The 12th GRVA session, the coordination discussions among the informal groups, and AC.2 tasks
- Open issues identified during the review and revision of Document 5
- Status and plans for elaboration of detailed provisions under the FRAV workstreams
- Expectations for FRAV input/deliverable for the May GRVA session
- Calendar for FRAV sessions and deliverables.

A two-day FRAV session has tentatively been scheduled for 15-16 February to enable more detailed discussions. It would be useful to introduce any proposals for further elaboration of Document 5 during the next session in preparation for this longer session. Submissions can be sent to the FRAV secretary (jcreamer@americanautocouncil.org).
