

BUREAU OF CHLM:

Wolfgang FÖRSTER has studied architecture, planning and political sciences in Vienna and Graz, Austria. He has worked as an architect and researcher. He was Deputy Director of the Vienna Housing Fund. Since 2001 he has been Head of the Vienna Housing Research Department. He is a Delegate of Austria to the UNECE Committee on Housing and Land Management, and Chair of this Committee since 2009. He is also chairing the EUROCITIES Working Group on Housing and has been coordinator of several EU-projects. He has frequently published on public housing and urban renewal issues.

Doris Andoni holds the position of Director of the Housing Policy Department in the Ministry of Public Works and Transport of Albania since 2001. Among her major professional achievements are the reform of the Albanian housing policy, the development of the new housing legislation and the formulation, implementation and monitoring of different housing projects implemented for the first time in Albania.

Her education and academic achievements include: B.A. in Urban Planning and Architecture and holds the degree of Master of Science in Urban Housing Management. She is a guest lecturer at the International School for Architecture and Urban Planning in Tirana. Since 2002 she is a member of the Bureau of UNECE Committee on Housing and Land Administration and between 2006 and 2009 she was elected as Chair of the Committee.

Daniela Grabmüllerová, Director of the European Affairs Department of the Ministry of Regional Development of the Czech Republic, is responsible for European and international affairs of the Ministry as well as for the preparation of the policy aimed at economic, social and territorial cohesion in the Czech Republic in the programming period 2014-2020, including the negotiation of the new European legislation in this field. She chaired the UNECE Committee on Human Settlements and now she is a member of the Bureau of the UNECE Committee on Housing and Land Management. She was involved, as a twice elected independent candidate, in the Prague 1 Municipality Council. Her educational background includes a MBA from the Sheffield Hallam University and PhD from the Faculty of Architecture of the Czech Technical University in Prague.

Svetlana Ristić. Born in 1960, Nova Gradiška, Croatia; lives in Belgrade, Serbia; graduated Architecture Faculty in the Belgrade University; since 1989 has worked at the FRY and Serbian administration, in the field of environmental (national environmental reviews, sustainable development indicators, environmental legislation) and housing affairs (preparation of strategic document, housing legislation, etc); actively involved in housing reform in Serbia; has participated in international cooperation in the area of environmental and housing issues; has publishes expert papers in relate to sustainable development, housing policy, cultural heritage; actually, she is Chief of the Housing Department in the Ministry of Environment, Mining and Spatial Planning of the Republic of Serbia.

Ernst Hauri. After his studies in social anthropology at the university of Zurich (Switzerland) with doctorate degree, Ernst Hauri joined the Swiss Federal Administration in 1987. Since 2011 he is Director of the Federal Office for Housing and head of the Swiss delegation in the UNECE-committee of Housing and Land Management.

Elena Szolgayová, an architect and urban planner with long-standing research experience, has been advising state and municipal housing policy makers since the early 1990s. In 1999 she joined the Ministry of Construction and Regional Development of the Slovak Republic, where she has been acting as Director of the Housing Policy Department since 2004, recently at the Ministry of Transport, Construction and Regional Development. She has been involved in numerous UN ECE and EC housing activities and Working groups targeted at housing and urban development, chaired the UN ECE Committee on Housing and Land Management and has contributed to numerous UN ECE and research publications related to urban and housing issues.