"6.1 [The effectiveness of AECD shall not be adversely affected by magnetic or electrical fields. This requirement shall be ~~met by ensuring~~ demonstrated by fulfilling the technical requirements of compliance with Regulation No.10.03, 04 or 05.]

II JUSTIFICATION

- EMC should only refer to the "technical requirements" of Regulation No.10 as Contracting Parties which are signatories to this Regulation may not be a signatory to UN Regulation No.10.
- The relevant technical requirements of 03 series and 04 series are still valid in accordance with the transitional provisions of the 05 series.
