Summary of Change (25 words or less)

Definition of ‘suitably engaged’

Reason for Change (Justification)

At the moment we have the following requirements

“The ADS shall assess if the user is suitably engaged to resume the DDT before completion of the deactivation process.”

But no indication what is meant with suitably engaged.

Original text

A user is suitably engaged to resume the DDT when they are in contact with the steering control and their gaze has been directed to a driving task relevant area long enough to be able to resume the DDT safely.
