

- Milwaukee HOTSPOTS -

BAY VIEW
With great restaurants, unique local retailers and one of the city's best bar districts, this neighborhood is popular with all ages.

BRADY STREET
The bohemian home of Milwaukee's hippie scene, this eclectic street is the place to hit for a night on the town, whether diner or drinks are on your mind.

DOWNER AVENUE
Check out the popular local shops and restaurants on this East Side street, including Milwaukee's premier independent bookstore.

KING DRIVE
A long-time hotbed for shopping and entertainment, this street is emerging again as a destination for arts, culture and specialty shops in Bronzville.

LATIN QUARTER
Find inventive and authentic Latin food and culture at lively restaurants, neighborhood shops and performances from local and international artists on Milwaukee's south side.

MENOMONEE RIVER VALLEY
This former industrial valley is now full of revitalized green spaces and popular attractions, including Potawatomi Hotel & Casino.

FARWELL & NORTH
From UW-Milwaukee students to retirees, all types mix on this trendy street. Great for nightlife and catching a movie at the historic Oriental Theatre.

OLD WORLD THIRD STREET
The historic center of Milwaukee's German population is now a haven for sports bars, just a block away from downtown arenas.

RIVERWEST
This diverse neighborhood is famous for a funky, DIY attitude. You'll find brewpubs, dance clubs, tiki bars and more on this street.

THIRD WARD
Shop, stroll and dine in this stylish renovated warehouse district, including the must-visit Milwaukee Public Market and plenty of chic boutique shops.

WALKER'S POINT
A haven for foodies, find artisan food shops, distilleries, highly acclaimed restaurants and more on 2nd Street, plus popular gay nightlife spots.

WATER STREET
Visit some of the city's best performing venues for a night of entertainment, then check out the bustling bar district on this major downtown thoroughfare.
