

Resolution 2

- Infant carrier module
 - Below 15 months
 - Less than 13 kg
 - Part of a Phase 1 product
 - Hand
- Belt routing according to R44-04 § 4.3.
- Frontal impact according to R44-04 § 7.1.4.
- Rear impact according to R44-04 § 7.1.4.
- Overturning according to R44-xx § 7.1.3.

Marking

- The ECRS shall bear the marking define in ECE R[131] on its permanent part
- The infant carrier module shall bear the type approval number of the complete ECRS
- The infant carrier module shall bear the belt routing information as defined in ECE R44-04 § 4.3

Modification ECE R131

- § 5.3 after 2nd paragraph insert a foot note :
 - If part of the ECRS could be used as infant carrier module as defined in annex 21, for an interim period of [X]months the approval to this regulation of the ECRS can only be granted if the infant carrier module complies with the requirements of this annex.

Annexe 21

- Infant carrier module
 - An infant carrier module is the part of an Integral ECRS restraining a child up to 15 months old and up to 13 kg. It is designed to be removed from the vehicle with the child inside and without opening any harness and to carry it outside of the vehicle.
- Belt routing according to R44-04 § 4.3. & 6.1.9
- Frontal impact according to R44-04 § 7.1.4.
- Rear impact according to R44-04 § 7.1.4.
- Overturning according to R44-04 § 7.1.3.