CHILD BUS AND COACH PASSENGER CASUALTIES – UK AND GERMANY

Costandinos Visvikis
CYBEX GmbH
9th July 2019
Age distribution of children killed and seriously injured in Great Britain (Some police forces changed their systems for severity reporting in 2016)

- Buses and coaches ≥17 pax, all uses
- Restraint availability / use / type unknown
- One child fatality since 2010

Age distribution of children killed and seriously injured in Great Britain (Some police forces changed their systems for severity reporting in 2016)

- UK Legislative interventions
- 1996: Belts must be fitted if carrying ≥ 3 children on organised trip
- 2001: All new buses fitted with seat belts (except urban buses)
- 2006: Children aged 3 to 14 must wear seat belt, if available
Buses and coaches all uses
Restraint availability / use / type unknown
Three child fatalities since 2010
Age distribution of children killed and seriously injured in Great Britain
(Some police forces changed their systems for severity reporting in 2016)