16.03.2022

- Access to Andorra requires passing through either Spain or France, so check their travel restrictions, too, before planning your trip.
- Travel to and from the country is open, but masks are still required in indoor spaces. Andorra also asks that social distancing be respected.
- Travellers who intend to stay in Andorra for more than three nights need to present a vaccination certificate, a negative PCR or lateral flow test result, or proof that they have recovered from COVID-19.
